

The OLGA H. Family

A TIPS On Art collaboration with Foundation Communities

Foundation Communities tells us that without our collaboration, Olga had already told her girls that gifts would be minimal this year as she was trying desperately to save what she could. Olga has instilled the importance of an education with each of her daughters and she hopes Francesca will set the path for her 3 younger sisters. This is a kind-hearted, tight knit family who rely on each other.

Family Statement: I am thankful for this program for being able to give to my family what I have not been able to give. It's been hard trying to come up with presents for my three youngest daughters and also my oldest who is 17 and about to graduate. I've been struggling trying to help her pay for college applications, college tuition, senior trips and events. Receiving this holiday assistance would be such a blessing not just to my daughters but to me as well. Thank you so much! God bless.
